The book containing specimens of fine printing inks manufactured by B.Winstone and Sons Ltd. appears to be a trade catalogue within the meaning of sub-clause (2)(b) of clause 13 of the Paper Control (Economy) Order, 1944.

In view of ~~that~~ the fact that no proper evidence was led as to the manner of publication determined by the Government of India under rule 119(1) of the Defence of India Rules as best adapted for informing persons whom the order concerned, this does not appear to be a fit case for appeal. The view taken in the Additional Director of Civil Supplies office note at p.23 ante appears to be correct.

The invitation card at page 17 ante appears to be in the form of a folder requiring the use of an envelope within the meaning of sub-clause (i) of clause 38(e) of the Paper Control (Economy) Order,1944. Even if it be held a folder not requiring the use of an envelope, it would be hit by sub-clause (iii) inasmuch as it has an area greater than 54 sq. inches measured on one side of it.
